

date limitation due to the impact of inflation and with that I would be glad to answer any questions. I don't believe there are any dissenting votes in the Revenue Committee. It is not just a good bill but a fairly routine bill and I would move that it be advanced.

SPEAKER MARVEL: The motion is the advancement of the bill. All those in favor of that motion vote aye, opposed vote no. Have you all voted? Record the vote.

CLERK: 33 ayes, 0 nays on the motion to advance the bill, Mr. President.

SPEAKER MARVEL: The motion is carried. The bill is advanced. The next bill is LB 37.

CLERK: Mr. President, LB 37 is offered by Senators Newell, Wittala and Stoney. (Read title.) The bill was first read on January 8 of this year. It was referred to the Urban Affairs Committee for public hearing. The bill was advanced to General File, Mr. President. I do have committee amendments pending by the Urban Affairs Committee.

SPEAKER MARVEL: Is there someone here from Urban Affairs that can take the committee amendments?

CLERK: Senator, it will be in your bill book but it will also be on page 381, Senator, in your Journal but also in your bill book. Would you like me to read them? They are rather short? Okay. Mr. President, the committee amendments are: (Read committee amendments to LB 37 as found on page 381 of the Legislative Journal.)

SPEAKER MARVEL: Senator Haberman.

SENATOR HABERMAN: Mr. President and members of the Unicameral, it put back into the bill the election procedures that were stricken from the bill. It put back into the bill that more than 50% of the houses in any Sanitary Improvement District and their owners shall be considered legal residents within such districts for purpose of electing trustees. It does not do any damage to the bill. It helps the bill and that is the original language.

SPEAKER MARVEL: Okay, the motion is the adoption of the amendments. All those in favor of the adoption of the amendments vote aye, opposed vote no, the amendments to LB 37. Record.

CLERK: 29 ayes, 0 nays on adoption of the committee amendments, Mr. President.
